I tried unsuccessfully to convince the ladies of the Joy Class that I had planned and prepared the delicious luncheon for Saturday.

The multitude of compliments concerning the presentation, the variety and the savory foods were duly credited to A La Carte - a class act from first contact to the final serving pieces pick-up.

The two of us hosting the event were greenhorns, but with A La Carte we were the two most relaxed people at the party. You made us look like Martha Stewart because you indeed did cover every detail. THANK YOU!

Your disposable serving utensils were grabbed and washed by the church Kitchen Committee - some free advertising.

There have been three requests for the name of the caterer which I can give without reservation. You may use my name as a very satisfied customer.

The enclosed envelope is for the delivery/pick-up person. He represents your company very well.

Thanks for everything
Happy Holidays to all
